

5. Chief Joseph Speaks

From the closing words of his speech
given in Lincoln Hall, Washington, DC
on January 14, 1879

Music by Clif Hardin

Starting $\text{♩} = 116$

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a tempo of 116 beats per minute. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the bass clef and chords in the treble clef. The vocal line is in the soprano clef. The lyrics are: "When we are treat-ed all the same, then we will have no more wars. We shall be a-like, bro - thers and sis - ters of one fa - ther and one mo - ther, with one sky a -".

Measure numbers 8, 7, 12, and 16 are indicated at the start of their respective systems. Dynamics include p (piano), mp (mezzo-piano), and mf (mezzo-forte). The piano accompaniment includes triplets and a 'Use pedal throughout' instruction.
